PSA Cotabato staff, alongside the elderly residents of Kalinaw Casa Misericordia Foundation Inc., share smiles and stories with the esteemed founder, Sr. Estella Marie Alviar, during the heartfelt visitation on March 28, 2025, in celebration of 2025 National Women's Month.

As part of the 2025 National Women's Month celebration, the Philippine Statistics Authority (PSA) Cotabato conducted a heartfelt visitation to Kalinaw Casa Misericordia Foundation in Makilala, Cotabato, on March 28, 2025. The foundation, which has been dedicated to serving elderly residents for 16 years, continues to stand as a beacon of compassion and care in the community.

Led by Senior Statistical Specialist Ma'am Edna A. Alagano, the PSA Cotabato team brought joy to the residents through fun-filled activities and the distribution of essential items, including food packs, hygiene kits, and other necessities. The event was graciously received by the foundation's esteemed founder, Sr. Estella Marie Alviar, whose unwavering commitment to the welfare of the elderly remains an inspiration.

*PSA Cotabato, led by Senior Statistical Specialist Ma'am Edna A. Alagano, brought joy to the elderly residents of Kalinaw Casa Misericordia Foundation Inc. with fun activities and a thoughtful gift-giving program, warmly received by founder Sr. Estella Marie Alviar.
