Reference No.: 47R12-PR-2025-030

The dedicated PSA Cotabato team stands together in celebration of the 2025 National Women's Month Closing Ceremony, marking another milestone of commitment to inclusivity and progress.

On March 31, 2025, the Philippine Statistics Authority (PSA) Cotabato proudly concluded its vibrant celebration of the 2025 National Women's Month with a meaningful and lively closing ceremony. With the theme "Babae sa Lahat ng Sektor, Aangat ang Bukas sa Bagong Pilipinas," the event highlighted the indispensable contributions of women across all sectors and reinforced PSA Cotabato's dedication to promoting gender equality and empowerment.

The closing ceremony was marked by a series of festive and engaging activities that showcased the unity, creativity, and energy of the PSA Cotabato family. Among the program's highlights was the ASEAN Attire Parade, where staff elegantly displayed outfits inspired by the rich and diverse cultures of the ASEAN countries. This parade not only reflected the inclusivity and appreciation for cultural heritage but also celebrated the uniqueness and strength of women across nations.

Adding a spirited touch to the event, PSA Cotabato hosted the awarding ceremony for its dynamic Zumba competitions. Awards were presented to winners in various categories, including Best in Zumba Attire, Zumba Hataw, Zumba Body, and the coveted title of Biggest Loser. These activities promoted camaraderie, health, and vitality while celebrating the achievements of participants.

PSA Cotabato's Senior Statistical Specialist, Ma'am Edna A. Alagano expressed heartfelt gratitude to the PSA Cotabato team for their enthusiastic participation and commitment throughout the month. In her message, she emphasized the importance of empowering women as a driving force behind building a progressive and inclusive society.

Held on March 31, 2025, at the PSA Cotabato Conference Hall, Senior Statistical Specialist Ma'am Edna A. Alagano, alongside the Admin Unit facilitators, awarded winners of the 2025 National Women's Month events.

As the event drew to close, PSA Cotabato staff gathered for a commemorative photo opportunity, symbolizing their shared commitment to fostering gender equality and inclusivity in their endeavors. The ceremony ended with a call to action, encouraging continued support for women's initiatives that inspire positive change and growth.

The 2025 National Women's Month celebration stands as a testament to PSA Cotabato's unwavering commitment to empowering women and advancing a brighter future for all.
