PSA to Participate in Bagong Pilipinas Serbisyo Fair

The Philippine Statistics Authority (PSA) Sultan Kudarat Provincial Office announces PSA's participation in the upcoming Bagong Pilipinas Serbisyo Fair, on February 25-26, 2024, at the Provincial Capitol Compound, Isulan, Sultan Kudarat. This two-day event aims to bring essential government services closer to Filipinos and promote wider public access to information and assistance.

During the fair, PSA will set up a booth to provide various services to the public, such as:

- Issuance of Certificates of Live Birth to qualified beneficiaries under the Birth Registration Assistance Project (BRAP)
- Counselling for issues on civil registry documents
- Appointment Setting Support
- PhilSys Registration
- Issuance of ePhilID
- Request for PhilID Replacement
- Assistance on Retrieval of Lost PhilSys Transaction Number
- Updating of PhilSys Demographic Information
- Distribution of PSA IEC materials

The PSA's participation in the forthcoming Bagong Pilipinas Serbisyo Fair demonstrates its unwavering commitment to provide essential services to the Filipino people. PSA enables Filipinos to make more informed decisions and navigate government procedures by providing easy access to critical documents, streamlining online registration processes, and disseminating necessary information.

These efforts represent PSA's core principles of inclusivity, efficiency, and transparency. PSA's involvement at the fair illustrates its commitment to closing the gap between the public and key services, resulting in a more informed and empowered public.

The Bagong Pilipinas Serbisyo Fair provides a great platform for PSA to directly engage with the community, address their needs, and showcase its commitment to public service quality.

PSA encourages residents in nearby areas to visit the PSA booth for the Bagong Pilipinas Serbisyo Fair at the Provincial Capitol Compound. This is a great opportunity to access important government services conveniently and efficiently.
