

PRESS RELEASE

First Ten Female Requesters in PSA-CRS Tacurong City Outlet of Sultan Kudarat Province Avail the Pro-bono Civil Registry Documents

Date of Release: 17 March 2025
Reference No.: 65R12-PR2025-34

On 07 March 2025, the Philippine Statistics Authority-Sultan Kudarat Provincial Office (PSA-SK) – Civil Registry System (CRS)- Tacurong City Outlet participated in the International Women's Day Celebration, which carries the theme “Accelerate Action,” encouraging society to push for gender equality and women’s empowerment.

As part of the celebration, PSA-SK issued free copies of civil registry documents in Security Paper (SECPA) to the first ten (10) female requesters in CRS-Tacurong City Outlet of Sultan Kudarat. This initiative is a commitment of PSA-SK in improving accessibility of Civil registry services to the public.

Valerie Joy Febrero, a college student from Sultan Kudarat State University (SKSU), and Teresita Janolino, a mother residing in Isulan, Sultan Kudarat, expressed their gratitude to PSA-SK chosen as being one of the recipients of PSA-SK’s free issuance of civil registry documents in SECPA.

Statistical Analyst (SA), Maria Annaliza S. Mogan, the CRS Tacurong City Outlet Supervisor, extended her congratulations to the recipients of the free birth certificates. In her message, SA Mogan highlighted the PSA's commitment to supporting women's valuable contributions to society, emphasizing that providing civil registry documents free of charge would significantly aid the thriving women in the province.

PSA-SK celebrates not only the courage, strength, and power of all women who lead, inspire, and change the world but also it celebrates women that are the backbone of society, the promoters of creativity, and the embodiment of unrivaled bravery, love, and diligence.

Approved for Release:

MARIFI P. DE ASIS
(Supervising Statistical Specialist)
OIC-Chief Statistical Specialist

19 Doña Aurora Street, Poblacion, Tacurong City, Sultan Kudarat
Telefax Number: PLDT-(064) 562-4052
Email address: sultankudarat@psa.gov.ph