

RD Manulon joins PSA delegation to BPSF Summit

Upon invitation of the Office of Speaker, House of Representatives, RD Manulon joins the PSA delegation to the first Bagong Pilipinas Serbisyo Fair (BPSF) Summit held at PICC Manila on August 19 to 21, 2024. The Summit is spearheaded by no less than the Honorable Ferdinand Martin Romualdez, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

"The Summit serves as a key platform to promote interagency collaboration and convergence, highlighting the essential role of cooperation among government entities, elected representatives, and LGUs in achieving sustainable national development", BPSF said.

The PSA is among the few agencies receiving the award from the management of BPSF recognizing its role and contribution during the past BPSFs conducted nationwide.

His Excellency President Bongbong Marcos, Jr. graced the Gabi ng Pagkakaisa where he speaks to the participant about the success of BPSF so far. Participants of the summit are head of agencies, regional directors and other officials of the government across bureaucracy nationwide.
